The screenshot shows the GitHub sign-up page. On the left, there's a dark section with the text "Create your free account" and "Explore GitHub's core features for individuals and organizations." Below this, there are three 3D avatars (a purple cat, a blue robot, and a yellow duck) against a starry background. On the right, the "Sign up for GitHub" form is visible. It includes fields for Email (abdulrehman.siddiqi@taleemabad.com), Username (arsiddiqi-ux), and Your Country/Region (Pakistan). There's a checkbox for "Email preferences" (Receive occasional product updates and announcements) which is unchecked. A yellow hand icon points to the "Create account" button. Below the button, there's a small disclaimer about terms of service and privacy. At the bottom right, there's a "Folge.me" logo.

8 Click "Create repository"

The screenshot shows the GitHub dashboard. On the left, there's a sidebar with the "Create your first project" section. It has a green "Create repository" button and a blue "Import repository" button. A yellow hand icon points to the "Create repository" button. The main content area is titled "Home" and features a search bar, a "Ask anything or type @ to add context" input, and buttons for "Ask", "All repositories", "+", "Agent", "Create issue", "Write code", "Git", and "Pull requests". Below this, there's a "Playlist" section titled "GitHub for beginners on YouTube" with a "Start playlist" button. At the bottom, there's a "Getting started" section with a "Create your first code project" button and a "Start a Copilot chat" button. At the bottom right, there's a "Folge.me" logo.
