The screenshot shows the GitHub sign-up page. On the left, there's a dark section with the text "Create your free account" and "Explore GitHub's core features for individuals and organizations." Below this, there are three colorful avatars (a purple cat, a blue robot, and a yellow duck) on a starry background. On the right, the "Sign up for GitHub" form is visible. It includes fields for Email (abdulrehman.siddiqi@taleemabad.com), Username (arsiddiqi-ux), and Your Country/Region (Pakistan). There's a checkbox for "Email preferences" (Receive occasional product updates and announcements) which is unchecked. A yellow hand cursor is pointing at the "Create account" button. Below the button, there's a small disclaimer about agreeing to the Terms of Service and Privacy Statement. In the bottom right corner, there's a "Folge.me" logo.

8 Click "Create repository"

The screenshot shows the GitHub dashboard. On the left, there's a sidebar with the "Create your first project" section. It says "Ready to start building? Create a repository for a new idea or bring over an existing repository to keep contributing to it." Below this, there are two buttons: "Create repository" (highlighted with a yellow hand cursor) and "Import repository". The main content area is titled "Home" and features a search bar, a "Ask" button, and a "Create issue" button. There's also a "Write code" button and a "Pull requests" button. A "Playlist" section titled "GitHub for beginners on YouTube" is visible, with a "Start playlist" button. At the bottom, there's a "Getting started" section with a "Create your first code project" button. In the bottom right corner, there's a "Folge.me" logo.
